

I do not want the FCC to implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone privacy law. The Indiana law has enabled me to answer my phone without having to screen my calls for unwanted sollicitaion. If you must have a federal law, use the Indiana law as your guide without lessening its effectiveness.